Master of Science In Finance

The procedure for Admission to M.Sc. Finance Batch 2025-27

The method:

The desirous candidates will apply on the portal of the Institute for admission to M.Sc. in Finance Programme.

The application form will be available after the MAH-MBA/MMS CET 2025 result is declared.

The candidates should have appeared for MAH-MBA/MMS CET 2025 or CAT 2024 to be eligible for the process. The application form will be opened for a stipulated period for applying to the admission process of M.Sc. Finance.

Only complete and consistent applications will be considered for evaluation of their profiles. Applications with incorrect MAH-MBA/MMS CET and other details will be rejected.

The candidates who have appeared for Union Public Service Commission Civil Services Examination in 2023 or 2024 having appeared for the Interviews/ personality test (Clearing Preliminary and Main Examination and due for Interview) will also be eligible for admission procedure. They are exempted from the MAH-MBA/MMS CET/CAT. The written test marks for these candidates will be computed based on their performance in UPSC examination. Their equivalent written test scores (in place of CAT / MAH-MBA/MMS CET scores) will be computed based on their Preliminary and Main examination scores.

Initial filter applied for profile evaluation:

The applicants will be shortlisted based on their CAT/ MAH-MBA/MMS CET scores. The cut off is as follows:

Category	CAT 2024 percentile	MAH-MBA/MMS CET 2025 Percentile
General	95	97
Reserved	75	90
PH	75	85

The Past Academic Record (PAR) cutoff is as follows:

Category	Percentage of Marks in 10 th Standard SSC or equivalent	Percentage of Marks in 12 th Standard HSC or Equivalent
General	60% or above	60% or above
Reserved	55% or above	55% or above

Please note, to be considered for profile evaluation; applicants need to meet the CAT/MAH-MBA/MMS CET cut off and the past academic record (PAR) cutoff.

The candidates should have opted for Mathematics at the higher secondary level or at UG degree level.

The candidates who satisfy the above the afore mentioned criteria will be considered for computation of Application Rating Score (ARS).

Approximately 400 candidates will be called for In-Person Assessment (IPA) based on their Application Rating Score.

In-Person Assessment will comprise of Group Activity (GA), Personal Interview (PI) and Writing Aptitude Test (WAT).

The Total Score is made up of Application Rating Score (AR) and In-Person Assessment (IPA) Score. The Application Rating Score has 60% and In-person assessment has 40% weightage respectively.

Application Rating Scores comprise of CAT/MAH-MBA/MMS CET performance, Past Academic Record up to Graduation, Work Experience, Extra Curricular Activities, Academic and Gender Diversity.

The weightage criteria are as follows:

	Application Rating Score (ARS)					In-person Assessment (IPA)				Total Score (TS)
Criterion	CAT/MAH-MBA/MMS CET /UPSC score	PAR (Xth, XIIth, Bachelor's degree)	Extra- curricular/ Work Experience	Diversity	Total	GA	PI	WAT	Total	0.60(AR) +0.40(IPA)
Weightage	60	15	20	5	100	20	60	20	100

The minimum Total Score (TS) required to be considered for admission to M.Sc. Finance is 50 for General Category and 45 for Reserved category.

Allotment Logic and Different Seat Categories:

This will be as per the seat allocation done by Government of Maharashtra, Mumbai and University of Mumbai as published from time to time.
